

|                                                                                                                                                                     |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| The Wicks That We Will Light; To Leivick on His Seventieth Birthday; Whitechapel; The Three Gifts; Efraim Kaganovsky RIP – ANS.....                                 | 1  |
| Hospital Patients of Special Importance (humorous sketch) – Efraim Kaganovsky.....                                                                                  | 8  |
| Efraim Kaganovsky (mini essay) – Moshe Domb.....                                                                                                                    | 9  |
| A Moment's Delay (poem) – Sh. Kilstein.....                                                                                                                         | 10 |
| Quietly Supressed Sighs; I Look at Myself in the Mirror; Idyll (poems) – Shmuel White.....                                                                          | 11 |
| People's Faces; A Jew with a Beard; I Have Thought Today (short short stories) – Sh. Tenenboym.....                                                                 | 12 |
| Despair (long poem) – Ella Zilberg.....                                                                                                                             | 12 |
| In Rebbe's Court (cont.) – A. Meizels.....                                                                                                                          | 14 |
| A Whitechapel Sonnet; The German Night Nurse; The Donkey and his Messiah; The Kozhenitzer Rebbe Conducts a Tish in Whitechapel, and other poems – A. N. Stencl..... | 22 |
| Boris Pasternak's Novel 'Doctor Zhivago' (overview of the Jewish problem) – Y. Richtiger.....                                                                       | 32 |
| Two Essays: 1. The Desert; 2. What Is a Poem – Yechezkel Bronstein.....                                                                                             | 36 |
| Grandfather's Psalms Niggun (poem) – Rachel Bergman.....                                                                                                            | 38 |
| Efraim Kaganovsky – Moshe Bekerman.....                                                                                                                             | 39 |
| A Reply to an Unpublished Letter...; As If Among Dogs (satire) – S[tenc].                                                                                           | 40 |
| Yiddish Literary Saturday afternoons.....                                                                                                                           | 40 |
| London Cultural News                                                                                                                                                |    |